

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM MANY STATES

Important News Gathered from Abroad for the Benefit of Our Readers.

A young man who posed as the intimate friend of the family of New York; Chief Justice Melville Fuller and Judge George Gray were arrested in Cincinnati on the charge of passing bogus checks.

As the result of an explosion in the Seaside Coal Mine, near Evansville, five men are dead and a score seriously injured. All have been rescued from the mine.

Speaker Cannon has set his foot down on general legislation at the special session of Congress. He has announced that committees will not be named until adjournment.

Wolf Face, one of the most noted war chiefs of the Cheyennes, died at his home near Colony, Okla. He was nearly 100 years of age.

Successful flights on the Wright airplane were made at Pau, France, by Count de Lambert and Paul Tripartite, Wilbur Wright's pupils. Each man went up alone and remained in the air twenty minutes.

While resting against a fence in Franklin county, the weight of John Farmer, aged 30 year, a tobacco grower, caused the fence to break, and he fell over a 20 foot embankment to his death below.

Mr. Sterling, Ky., March 19.—Harvey Hall, one of the oldest negroes in the county died after a brief illness. He was 91 years old and said to be the father of 23 children. Hall was very active until about a week before his death.

Mayville, Ky., March 19.—A most singular and unusual accident occurred at Bridgeville, near Germantown, when the little five-year-old son of Mrs. Berry tripped himself in the yard at his home and fell, breaking his neck. Death was instantaneous.

Louisville, Ky., March 18.—By destruction here tonight at loss of $40,000 of the Union Depot, the local terminal for five of the country's chief railroads. Louisville will probably benefit by a new union station. This was decided by the Commercial club, an hour after the building at Seventh street and the Ohio river was a mass of smoking embers and debris.

Crossed wires in the attic of the big structure erected by the Illinois Central in 1890, are charged with the responsibility for the blaze which made an empty shell of the depot before the entire fire department of the city, which was called, had arrived.

St. Sterling, Ky., March 19.—Mrs. John T. Hazelrigg, died at the home of her son, Clarence Hazelrigg, at City, Powell county, as the result of an accident, both legs being broken about two weeks ago. Mrs. Hazelrigg was 70 years old. She was the mother of Mrs. E. C. O'Farrell, wife of the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals at Frankfort. The body will be brought to St. Sterling and interred by the side of her husband tomorrow morning.

President Taft, Gov. Hughes, of New York; Chief Justice Melville Fuller and Judge George Gray were among the speakers at memorial exercises in honor of Grover Cleveland in Carnegie Hall, New York.

The jury in the case of D. B. Cooper and Robin J. Cooper, at Nashville, returned a verdict finding the defendants guilty of murder in the second degree and fixing their penalty at 23 years in the Tennessee penitentiary. Immediately after the verdict was read the defense moved to set it aside because of the verdict of disagreement of Friday, and asked the court to declare it a mistrial. Judge Hart said he would listen to arguments on this motion later. He then fixed the defendants' bond at $25,000 each, which was promptly given, and they were released from custody.

The movement to convert the birthplace of Jefferson Davis in Christian county into a memorial park for Southerners was revived at Hopkinsville. Options on the Davis farm expire April 27 and it is requested that all Confederates and their sympathizers interested send their contributions for the purchase of the Davis place to S. A. Cunningham, Nashville, Tenn.

Frankfort, Ky., Mar. 19.—Kentucky stands an excellent chance to get the next meeting of the Conference of Governors of all the States, and Frankfort has already made the first move toward landing the meeting for this city. Opposition is expected from Louisville, which will probably try to secure the meeting, but Frankfort being the first in the field with an invitation to the Governors to meet here, will stand the best chance. Then too, Frankfort has a new Capitol, in which the meetings could be held, as an extra inducement to get the conference here.

The time and place for the meeting of the Governors will be selected by a committee of five Governors. Two of these, Governor Swanson, of Virginia, and Gov. Willson, of Kentucky, will select three other Governors to make up the full committee. The other three members of the committee are to be named by Governor Willson and Gov. Swanson, in a few days. In a short time thereafter a meeting of the five Governors will be called, probably to be held here in Frankfort, when the time and place for the next meeting will be decided upon.

This letter said to have been written by a Kentucky mountaineer to a New Jersey business house, has found its way into the papers:

"Gentlemen—I want you to understand that I aint no dam fool, when I hort that Bill from that Read Headed engent of yours He told me that you sent him all the way from cencyratia to git that order. Now you writes me a printed letter and sez if I send you the munney you will send me the goods. I reckon you will, most anny darn fool ud do that. I would not mind a bit sendin' the munney and risk gettin the goods, but when I recollect how that sagent done me, I refuse to do it. If you would a treated me rite and rit me letters in writtin 'stead sendin' me that newspaper printed lettr like I was a dam fool and could not read rite I would have tuck the goods and paid cash. now I don't want no more ofy our printed letters. I won't stand sich from no house. Moralists who are wont to philosophize over the decay of letter writing may find some comfort in this epistle. The Kentucky mountains, for all their faults, are reservoirs of much of the old times that are good and gone elsewhere.

EASY TO MIX

This Simple Recipe for Didney or Bladder Trouble or Rheumatism

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription which is said to be a positive remedy for backache or kidney or bladder derangement, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease.

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

A well known druggist here at home, when asked regarding this prescription, stated that the ingredients are all harmless, and can be obtained at a small cost from a good prescription pharmacy. As the prescription would be put up if asked to do so, He further stated that while this prescription is often prescribed for rheumatic affections, he could not see why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as he has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the foul acids and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.

Nervous Collapse

"I have traveled for thirty years continually. I lost a great deal of sleep, which together with constant worry left me in such a nervous state that finally, after having two collapses of nervous prostration, I was obliged to give up traveling altogether. I doctored continually but with no relief. Dr. Miles' Nervine came to my rescue—I cannot describe the suffering which this Nervine saved me. Whenever I am particularly nervous a few doses relieve me."

A. G. C. LIBBY, Wells, Me. There are many nervous wrecks. There is nervous prostration of the stomach, of the bowels, and other organs. The brain, the kidneys, the liver, the nerve centers are all exhausted. There is but one thing to do—build up the nervous system by the use of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. Its strengthening influence upon the nervous system restores normal action to the organs, and when they all work in harmony, health is assured. Get a bottle from your druggist. Take it all according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.
